CHERRY FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds. Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855.

DR. J. C. Aver. I do not hestiate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hayseness. Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your Cherry Perroal. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last feu years has shown It 10 possess superior virtues for the treatment of those complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D. A. B. MORTNEY For of VIRGAL N. V.

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza. Springfield, Miss., Feb. 7, 1856.

Brother Ater: I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral s the best remedy we possess for the cure of whooping rough, croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraterully in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

HIGAN CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, La. withes, 2d Jau., 1856; "I had a tedions Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Peterral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the screness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic. and Bronchitis.

Sir: Your Cherry Pictoral is performing marvellous circs in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is new curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant. A. A. RAMSEY, M. B., Albox, Morrobat, writes, Sept. 6, 1855; "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectural for giving oase and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtnes of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duity and a plensure to inform yon what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no ablive could presure gave her much relief. She was stadily fulling, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill; for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but he free from her cought, and calls herself well.

Yours with gratinide and regard.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have hied ATER'S CHERLY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemiets in the world, and its cures all around as bespeak the high merits of its virtues. — Thaladelphaa Ledger.

The New Orleans Vigilance Committee. For a year the city of New Orleans has been lively time of it. Up my Burgoos! under the control of as reckless a gang of scoundrels as were ever placed in office by the Know-Nothing party. Human life in that city has for a year been at the mercy of the caprices and whims of the ruffians who, have murdered and pillaged, unrestrained and unrebuked by the Know Nothing officials. Law has been a farce, and like Louisville, Baltimore, and all other cities under under a reign of terror, and a disgrace to the United States. Many of the citizens becoming tired of this state of affairs, determined to take the matter Into their own hands and rid the city of the ruffins who infested it, and who pursued their mefarious calling under Know Nothing protection .-Accordingly, on the might of the second inst., a Vigilance Committee took possesson of the Arsemal and of the city prisons. On the following morning the committee issued the following card: Citizens of New Orleans:

Avery cars unsorder, outrage, and enchecked assassination, the people, unable and unwilling either to bow down in unresisting submission to a bandon the city in which their business, their social sympathies, and their might, have quelly taken possession of the arsemal business, their social sympathies and an buildings in Jackson Square, and have established there the head quarters of a vigilance committee, pledging each to the steer the head quarters of a vigilance committee, pledging each to the steer the injust in which their thirty is the rights invitable of every peaceful and meanting to your approachment of the future. Sister Mindle for the future, and expel or pusits, as they may determine, and expel or pusits, as they may determine to bow down in unresisting submission to a bandon the city in which there business, the rocal submission to a bandon the city in which their business, their social sympathies, and their might, have quelly taken possession of the arsemal and buildings in Jackson Square, and have established there the head quarters of a vigilance committee, pledging each to the steer the main tain the rights invitable of every peaceful and uncentaint to yost age extra from that the city in which they business, their social sympathies, and their range of the future. State man."

The tragely occurred in Jessamine country, and the vision per large of Nicholasville. We understand that the citizens of Jessamine and a list of Books, Hall in the act of Withins, Hall have the two succeeding Books, Hall in the act of States and the total fluxe. The two succeeding Books, Hall in the act of Withins, States and the total fluxe. The two succeeding Books, Hall in the act of States and the total fluxe. The trage of Books, Hall in the act of Withins, Hall be a state to the States and the total fluxe. The trage of Books, Hall in the act of Withins, Hall be active to succeed the same to with the state to be in the trains. The trage of Nicholasville and lodged in jail, where he remains. The trage of Nicholasville Atfer years' disorder, outrage, and unchecked such actorious robbers and assassing as the arm of the law has, either from the infidelity of its public servants, or the inefficiency of the laws them selves, left unwhipt of justice. For the present, the ordinary machinery of police justice is super-ceded, the Mayor and the Recorders, we understand, yielding up the power they contess the ina- followers in the Court house. His speech was made ability to exercise for the preservation of the ap pretty much of abuse and misrepresentation of public peace, and the preservation of property, the Democratic party. Poor fellow, his only mis and the vigilance committee will, therefore, pro- sion now seems to be to administer upon the tailvisionally act in their stead, administering to each | end of the late great American party; or perhaps and every malefactor the punishment due to his he carries in his pocket the pions ritual of the mes, without heat, prejudicie, or political

All eitizens who have sympathies with the movement, and who think the time has come when New Orleans shall be preserved like all other well ordered and eivi 2 ed communities, will report themselves without delay at the principal office, when the character of this movement will be explained, and the determination of the people more fully known. All has been done noiselessly thus far—all will continue noiselessly, dispassionately and justly—but the ruffians who have dyed our streets in the gore of unoffending citizens and apread terror among the peaceable, orderly and well disposed, must leave or perish. So the people have determined. "Vox populi," "Vox dei."

The committee was composed of men of both political parties, who united for the objects expressel in the foregoing card. The Louisville it was a Democratic movement, intended to ef place on the following Monday. The absurdity of this assumption was fully manifested on the day of the election, when the Vigilance Committee were so far from desiring or attempting to control the city election, that many of them did not on Monday, but the Vigilance Committee stil maintain their organization, and express their de-1 termination to punish old offenders and protect the city from new outrages.

We are far from advocating mob law, and do not desire to be considered the apologist of mobs. But this is something more than a mob; it is a revolution; it is the spontaneous uprising of an outraged and insulted community; it is the righteous determination of an abused people, to put down mob-law and ruffianism, exercised under col or of law; it is the legitimate fruit of the Know Nothing party. We have ever contended that a secret, sworn and proscripitive political party was subversive of our social institutions, and events have borne us out in our statements. A faction like the Know Nothing party, that ever attains and maintains its power by fraud and ruffianism, cannot long remain in power in a community where the people have a love of liberty and a sense of justice, without producing rebellion and civil war .-Baltimore, Louisville and New Orleans are three cities under Know Nothing mis-rule. Look at them. Their mode of electing their officers, their manner of keeping in power, and the effect of their administration are exactly similar in the three cities. It is worthy of remark and shows most conclusively, that ruffianism and bullyism are component parts of Know Nothing policy, and not incident thereto. We think that Know Nothingism has been on exhibition long enough to convince people of that fact. Those who have the Parish Prison, New Orleans, last week, by watched the history of this disgraceful faction, cannot be in doubt as to its intentions, or surprised at its disastrous results.

The Burgoo Party-Its Vicissitudes.

Prenleast of these came very near being President of these United States in 1856. Only two little vircunstances prevented it. One of these was the Fact that outside of Bourbon county nobody knew GARRETT DAVIS. The other little obstacle to the Richmond Enquirer of Friday last: elevation of the aspiring GARRETT was the fact that outside of Maryland nobody knew the Know of an opinion that Henry A. Wise will be the Nothing party. So the people of the United States had the bad taste to give the great Davis formed out of the various 'odds and ends' which the go-by and elect "a liar, a coward, and a slanderer" (vide GARRETT DAVIS speech in Paris, the Monday before the Presidential election) to the Presidency. In view of these facts we think that the Burgoos of Kentucky ought to place GARRETT Davis and his multiplication table upon the truck for the Burgoo President in 1860.

In New York there will be a hard struggle be tween Seward, Greely & Co. Fred Douglass will probably be in the field and on account of his color will be a strong competitor. Gen. Houston, of Texas, Sumner of Massachusetts, H. Winter Davis of Maryland, Kenneth Raynor of North of Kansas, and Brigham Young of Utah, and many others too numerons to mention, will be candidates for the Presidency in 1860, apon the Burgoo platform. ### THE CELESTIAL ROSE.

OF all the species of the Rose, this is the most beautiful as well as wonderful. I am not aware that it is grown by any individual, but myself, in the United States. I obtained it from China—hence its name: "Colestial Rose." It blooms four times a year: once in each season. In Spring, the hanc of the flower is a CHANGABLE PERFLE; in Summer, DEEF RED, in Autumn, VARIEGATED BY ALL THE PRIMARY COLORS, and in Winter, winter as the Falling Snow. This Rose, when in full bloom, is as large as the Pino Apple, aval in shape, very compact, and remarkably odoriferous.

We would stand up to the last of our blood and our breath to defend our city against any unjust imputations. But the truth is open, paloable, plain as noon day, that scores of men steeped in crime parade our streets in broad day-light, laughing at law, and setting our tribunals at utter defrance. Men whose hands are red with the blood of innrder elbow us on street corners; flamit the badges of of a morsel's proving pleasant company so long office in our faces; threaten us by deed and word; boast of their former rascalities, and strut proudly under the load of infamy they bear. The sight of honest men is offended every day with assassins who should have swing on the gallows long ago or been consigned to the cells of our Peniten

Need we recapitulate the long, black list of crimes—crimes unpunished—that have been com-mitted during the past three or four years? Need we open the grave to point to the victims of as-sassination? Need we bid the tears of the children of murdered citizens to start anew? Need we revive the memory of the days when brutal, bloody terror flourished over us? Shall we call the roll of the honorable mem of high standing who have been assaulted while in the act of exercising the high and sacred right of suf-

Our readers would not thank us for drawing again in detail this dainnable, bloody record of crime in New Orleans. We know it is fresh in their memory. We know that the fanatic yells of rascal mobs still echo in their cars. We know that they have not forgotten the murders of '55. 56 and 57. We are aware that they know in person or by name the villains that have robbed, beaten, assaulted or murdered the citizens of New Orleans. They know by whom, when and for what the reign of Tlung terror was established.— They know its origin, they know its cause, they know its abetturs and its chief actors. But all efforts to punish such crimes have heretofore been thwarted. Association, ennning, fraud, partisan-ship, private pledges, or something else, has always interposed to shelter secondrels from the avenging hand of the law.

How long must our fair city continue to groan under this load of unputilshed crime? Is a repetition of all these outrages to be invited by a re-refusal to punish well-known assassins? We have rough faith in reaction. The cup is often filled to the brim before it is dashed aside. There is a time when forbearance ceases to be a virtue; when will that time come for the citizens of New Orleans? The skirts of the metropolis of the South and the Queen of the Mississippi Valley are red with the blood of her chi'dren: when will she vindicate her fair name by dealing just punishment to the guilty?

CHEWED UP BY A WHALE.

BY N. P. WILLIS.

My most interesting acquaintance at Sconset was a Nantucket "skipper" who had once been seventy-three, as I saw him an hour or two ago chewed up by a whale-his surviving to tell the chewed up by a whale-his surviving to tell the a good appetite, in New Bedford, forty years story, of course, being simply because the dainty after being eaten up, by a whale in the South Sea leviathan, not liking the taste of him, had dropped the unwilling mouthful out again upon the clean table-cloth of the ocean. This was forty years ago; and it is a rare instance, you will allow after being rejected by a reluctant stomach at the people at the following times and places:

I should ask pardon, however, for speaking thus familiarly of one of the best specimens of manhood that I have ever had the happiness to meet -a sea captain, now in his seventy-third year, as tall, straight, vigorous and cheerful, at this advancel age, as when a mate of twenty-five-one of the most respectable citizens of New Bedford, at present, and enjewing a comfortable independ-ence, front the capture of the whale that wouldn't eat him, and of other whales who similarly left him unswallowed. But I must give you the particulars of the half mastication of Captain Gard-ner--who, by the way, in addition to his singular experience as a monthful, has the peculiarity of being the son of the first white male child born

Newly arrived at the honors of captaincy; our Nantucket skipper was cruising along the coast of South America—just off Penu—when there was a cry from the mast-head, "a whale, ho!" The direction was given, the sails trimmed for the overtaking of the monster, and, when within a mile, the boats were lowered, each with its crew

th nietly affoat lay the amphibious Shylock of the sea, (the leviathan, I take it, is of the tribe of Lori,) and as the swift boat came within harpooning distance, the inevitable iron, hurled by the strong arm, penetrated to his vitals. Not as usual, however, did the struck monster go out of sight; turning, and making straight for his encsight; thinning, and making stearcht for his enc-mies, he rolled over his huge bulk to get a fairer grip, and brought his jaws together upon the boat's prow—the forward half of that slight struct-ure, captain and all, disappearing like the best part of an apple tart in the munch of a hungry school boy. The remainder of the crew, the helmsman and four carsmen, had jumped over-levels and active whole with nexter wall divise board; and, as the whale, with another roll, dived down to die out of sight, he threw up the unswallowed captain--the relief boat pulling instantly to the spot, and taking the crushed morsel and the swimmers safely from the water.

It was the chewed up right hand of the cap-tain, ashe sat by me at table, which had at first excited my curiosity—(stimulating the inquiries which drew from him, at last, this thrilling story) -the stump, of what was visible below the cont-sleeve, looking like a twisted rope's end, but still retaining clutch enough to carry the chowder-spoon to his month. Four of the whale's teeth citizen of Kentucky, whether he has resided in the were driven into him, one entering his skull, a second breaking his cellar-bone, a third breaking his arm, and the fearth crashing his hand—the remainder of his body being simply squeezed integrated in the heading of the wound in the head felly. The heating of the wound in the head felly. The heating of the wound in the head felly in the heating of the wound in the head felly sense. It every such naturalized heft a cavity like the inside of an regg-shell; and though the lear has grown over it, (hair still Kingdom of Great Britian and Ireland, who, we brown and thick with the stubborn vitality of the unk, is the better American citizen—the Irishman, unkill able Nantucketer,) it tells, after forty years, the size of the tooth that did to di the ends of my three fugers very comfortably in a foreign government in its aggressions upon or

The logical point Col. Johnston before however, that his life depended on the exercise of his strong will, he gave orders that he should by man's pocket-book I'm after."

The logical point was the nattest depended on the exercise of his strong will, he gave orders that he should by man's pocket-book I'm after." An officer about Col. Johnston's headquirters, who writes on the 6th of May, says that they were to have stack their tentson the 3 lth, and much kept up for six days, the ship, navigated by his prestrate min and examining his wounds, advised only that they should send or a confessor. Other prescription, the medical man thought, would be useless, as death was evidently close at hand.—

But the captain was of different minion. "A oxen was expected in a day or Iwo.

It would appear that this expectation was not fulfilled, for Gov. Powell, at a later date, writing to Captain McCown, commadder of Fort Kearny, says that Johnston's men would be feeding on mule meat on the 20th of May. Powell had not mule meat on the 20th useless, as death was evidently case.

But the captain—was of different opinion. "A physician for the soul is very well at proper time and place," said he, "but at present I want one for the body—and I happen to know of one who will care me!"

"This, I have been informed, is that object.—Permit me to grant it, and congratulate you that you will in future have no further occasion to renew these visits and attentions."

A couple of long lithe spars were brought by his orders, and a hammock was rigged to swing suspended from the center. His friend had two mules and with the spars fastened to their sides, they were to walk like the bearers of a palanquin, one before, and the other behind him-a tandem hammoek, in which he could ride, he was sure, quite as comfortably as

And, of the two day's journey which he thus aged each about nine years .- Les. Statesman. nade over the mountains, Captain Gardner's description was one of glowing remembrance.— By this elasticity of the spars which supported him, he was borne without jolting, and part of the time he s'ept most refreshingly. But the path was a giddy one to a sailor's eye-along the edge Keith v Commonwealth, Pendleton; affirmed. ot eliffs, where a single false step would have Pertle v Same, Jefferson; affirmed. dashed him and his mules "into grease spots," and now and then turning where his two spars formed a bridge from mule to mule, over a chasm -hundreds of feet of jagged rocks, nearly per-pendicular, stretching away below, (he still thrillngly remembers,) as he looked occasionally over the side of his mattress. They arrived safely at the mountain home of the old Spaniard, however; and here all was comfort and kind care. They only differed on one point. The doctor thought the broken collarbone should still be set; but the captain resisted. He had felt the broken ends kuit where they were, he said, and Nature's mending would do for him. And he was right; for, after forty years, he opened his shirt bosom and showed me the ridgy projection of the broken bone, strong and healthy, and doing as good service as a whole one that very day at Sconset.

It took two weeks of kind nursing to put him on his legs again; and then, with a grateful fare-well to the kird ald doctor of Pura, Captain Gardne urned to his ship, taking command and once .... e pursuing the object of his voyage And soon harpooning the requisite number of chales, (who or a lack of a newspaper had not the slightest idea, probably, that it was the very same man whom one of their number had chewed To lay in drawers and perfume clothing, at same man whom one of their number had chewed

For an instance of indomitable energy, this can hardly be outdone, I should think; and to see the erect, noble-looking and hearty old man o walking home to his dinner, with a light step and is to get a fine idea af the stull of a Nantucket

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly sciennine principles; after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Rophave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction in the U.S. was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persect whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of divisipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every serve, raising up the drooping spirit, and in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

Notice—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial possessed of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION: The great popularity of this celebrated Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, at though a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incantious nae. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtura. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its waderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living truthy of its victory over the suitle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasancest and safest remedy that can be employed for Infants and young persons. Farents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pictoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while trey are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitale, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung cisoroers, and as they know to the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is skill made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no tody whose it the constitution is the best it can be best agent which in the later of the provision of their cure.
